Volume 1, #2 - Paddling Onward

DuckByte news

Just a note to inform you of what's been happening since our digital duck-themed business emerged from its shell, paddled around the pond a bit, and started quacking like a boss.

First Client Site launch

We enjoyed a successful collaboration with our first website client: The Floating Bed. Check out the story of how we used AI technologies to enhance the resulting site:

AI Tools

We put together a blog post on how to enhance the ChatGPT AI toolset with plugins, with an example plugin named Photorealistic that enhances prompts (input orders) for the Midjourney AI art tool. (read more)

Duck Museum 1

Enjoy our first Duck AI Museum Art Gallery which showcases a diverse collection of artworks created through AI. By employing various prompts inspired by renowned artists and styles, the gallery attempts to replicate their unique aesthetics, captivating visitors with its simulated creativity.
